Checklist of good governance policies for COVID-19 readiness in municipalities

IMPULSO, IEPS & ARAPYAÚ

Brazil

Shared by: Marcondes Araujo, Science & Technology Liaison, SUDECO (ACE Leader)

Impulso, IEPS, and Arapyaú, organizations that support collaboration between public institutions and data-driven public policies, joined forces to help municipal governments design and implement good governance strategies to fight Covid-19 pandemic.

The initiative is called Corona Cidades and offers the following tools:

- Checklist to identify the reaction capacity of the health system at a local level;
- Dynamic simulator of health care infrastructure;
- Validation tool to assess when and how to resume the economy and public activities after Covid-19 peaks; and
- Frequent asked questions for speedy access to basic information.
